Synopsis

Naked Places is the gay man’s guide to nude recreation around the world. Inside, you’ll find information on well over 600 nude beaches, hot springs, and other natural areas that are popular with gay men, complete with detailed directions. Additionally, there are profiles of nearly 250 gay resorts, inns, guesthouses, campgrounds, and other accommodations where you won’t need to pack a swimsuit for the pool and hot tub. You’ll also find a directory of gay nudist social clubs as well as information about a variety of other activities--such as gay nude sailboat trips. Open these pages and open the door to a whole world of Naked Places!

Customer Reviews

I own both the first and second editions of this book, and, although the first edition was outstanding, the second edition seems to truly leave no stone unturned. There are nudist places where I would never expect to find them. My lover was downright shocked to learn that there is a gay nudist resort/campground in Iowa about 30 miles from where he grew up, but we haven’t had the opportunity to go there yet (for the first time, we’re both actually looking forward to visiting his relatives since we found out about it!). Although we haven’t traveled since the second edition came out, we used the first edition on several trips. My lover and I found some wonderful hidden nude beaches in New England last summer, and we used the book to explore nude beaches and resorts in Hawaii the year before that. We’re looking forward to using the book later this year for our first trip to Europe. Besides giving a large number of listings (both for beaches and for resorts, guesthouses, etc.), this book gives quality information for each listing. If you’re going to go somewhere like Palm Springs where there are lots of gay resorts to choose from, you can look over the listings to narrow down your choices since each listing tells you things like prices, whether the clientele is all gay men or whatever, whether the resort has amenities like a pool, hot tub, and so on, what the sexual temperature of the place is (very important if you're into naughty fun like my lover and I are!), and exactly where you are allowed to go naked. The directions given to nude beaches are also excellent. On our New England trip, we found all the places we looked for with no problem.
