Customer Reviews

I had an earlier addition when I was in graduate school, i found it to be informative and entertaining.(I learned from a professor that if you really want to know a student's interest just place the spine of the book on the desk and see what page falls open. Inevitably the chapter on sexual deviancy tops the student's priorities. I bought this latest volume to read and to send to a friend entering her master's internship. It makes an excellent resource material
